

Practise the spellings below. Can you use them in a sentence. correspond criticise (critic + ise) curiosity definite desperate Can you make a dramatic sentence using any of these words?	History The Ancient Greek empire spread far and wide across the world. The influence they had was immense and still can be seen today. What things can you find from Ancient Greece which is still used today?	Have you read any good books recently? I need some book recommendations! Please could you write me a book recommendation? Tell me where is it set, who are the characters and what the plot is!
In English we have been reading 'Who let the gods out' by Maz Evans. In the story Elliot and Virgo visit Stonehenge. Can you research and write a fact file about Stonehenge? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You must write where you find the information (which book or websites you have used).</li> <li>Try to write the information you find in your own words.</li> <li>If you copy the exact information out of the book or website you need to put it in "quote" marks.</li> </ul>	Read 3 times during the week. Complete your Big Maths online. Spend 10 minutes on Times Tables Rockstars Spend 10 minutes on IDL. Your home learning tasks are now being set by Miss Sadler. I look forward to hearing about what you get up to!	In maths we have been refreshing our memory on 3D shapes. Can you draw a net for a... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cube</li> <li>Cylinder</li> <li>Cuboid</li> <li>Square based pyramid.</li> </ul>
We are very lucky in our area that there are several stone circles. Why not go for a walk and visit one? The closest one is on Birkrigg!	In geography we are starting to look at biomes. Can you find out what biomes are and what types are there?	In science we are still looking at space. Our question this week is: Why does the rotation of Earth result in night and day?